

When I think of courage I think of Ruby Bridges because she is so inspiring. In 1961 she went to a white school despite being black. Marshals went with her to keep her safe. Some white people threw glass at her. They stood near the school waiting for her so they could hurt her. I want to be like Ruby Bridges because she is such a strong young woman. If I'm strong like her then I can do a lot.